Socially Responsible Leadership

Professor Mary Avery;

Assistant Professor David William Scott;

Instructor Lindsay Blumer

The minor in socially responsible leadership provides students with the specific leadership, ethical, and technical skills necessary to effectively contribute to solving social problems in ethically responsible ways. The interdisciplinary approach recognizes that leadership is a concern in all areas of life. It also integrates moral and ethical frameworks with the analysis of communities from a variety of disciplinary perspectives and in various real-world scenarios. Two different emphases in social entrepreneurship and innovation and in community engagement and service learning allow students to specialize in particular approaches to this integration. The minor is designed for students who desire to contribute to the social good in the non-profit, educational, private, and public sectors.

Sociology

*Associate Professor Jacqueline Clark (Chair);
 Assistant Professor Marc A. Eaton*

Departmental Mission Statement: The mission of the sociology department is to help students learn to think sociologically so that they may understand, interpret, and analyze the social world. To this end, the department seeks to:

- Prepare students to think critically about societal issues and problems.
- Prepare students to understand basic and applied research in the discipline.
- Prepare students to conduct their own sociological research.
